"That's a funny thing," laughed Stovall, who has a keen sense of humor. "There ain't a man on this team who has ever heard of the town he's going to play in."

Yes, and another thing George might have added: Until the injunction asked for by the former Kansas City stockholders is denied or granted they don't know whether they are to represent Kansas City or Newark.

Most of the men selected by Stovall are former big leaguers, but he thinks he has a coming star in Grover Gil-

NEW TRAINING STUNT.

Whether he wins a pennant, makes money or what not this George Stovall has introduced in baseball a training stunt that is absolutely new. Hereafter the rolling hoop may figure in price fighting, baseball or wrestling, but the credit must go to the manager of the Newark Feds. He has pulled a new one.

But, you ask, how can he make the indian stand for it? Right there comes in one of the most interesting features in the progress of the Federal League. The Winnebago is stuck and knows it.

The Federal League has on its hands, as a result of early soal in organization, any number of old-timers under two or three-year contracts, who must be cared for whether they are able to play or not, provided that they keep in condition. Get that least phrase—"keep in condition. Arthur Reid to Take Mirchell's Job at the Upper Montelair Country Club

There will seen be mere shifting around of golf prefessionals for the coming season. The announcement will shortly be made that Arthur Rold is to fill the position left vacant by Jee Mitchell at the Upper Montelair Country Club, the home club of Jorry

Travers.

The new Montdair pre. is a brother of Winfred Rold, who, tegether with Harry Varden and Edward Ray, same over from England in 1213 to compete in the open championship at Breekline, the same teurnament in which Francia Quimet made his sudden teap to fame.

Arthur Reid has been in this sountry for a short time. The teurnament record he made in England is not very impecing.

Not to be outdone by the defens of other professionals who have recently changed jobs, Orin Terry, late of the Belment Springe Glub, will switch his attentions to the Huntington Club this year.

More than 400 entries have been re-sived for the monater indoor champion-hips of the Evening High Schools at the Seventy-first Regiment Agrees, ark Avenue and Thirty-fourth Street.

Bettling Levinsky and Fighting Dill Estebelt were engaged to-day to hook up in the star bout of ten rounds at the show of the One Hundres and Thirty-fifth Street Sporting Club next Pride night. Young Fulton of the east side and Willis-Joses of Brooklyn will meet in the others ten round bent.
